2. It is clarified that the judgment dated 21.12.2006 in O.P. No. 22522/2001 permitting the petitioner to file an application for stay on an year to year basis shall not stand in the way of the petitioner approaching the Union of India under Section 5(i)(f) of the Act, in which case, the matter will be duly considered by the Union of India and appropriate orders in accordance with law in the matter shall be passed, within a period of four months from the date of receipt of the application.
